Exchange, together with Greek Government representatives participating in the 26th Annual Capital Link Invest In Greece Forum, rang the “Closing Bell” at the New York Stock Exchange.

The «GREEK AMERICAN ISSUER DAY» was organized within the context of the 26th Annual Capital Link Invest in Greece Forum Series titled "Greece - Speeding Ahead Post Investment Upgrade" that had took place the previous day. The Forum was held with great success, on Monday, December 9, 2024 in New York, in cooperation with the New York Stock Exchange, the Athens Exchange Group (ATHEX Group), and major Global Investment Banks & Organizations. It attracted over 1,000 delegates.

The New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) flew the Greek flag on Wall Street along side the US flag, which was a moment of pride for the Greek Government Delegation and high-level executives representing shipping and other companies listed on the New York Stock Exchange, as well as representatives of companies that participated in the Invest in Greece Forum the previous day, on December 9.

The active support and participation of NYSE, the world's largest stock exchange, enhances the prestige and the visibility of Greece to a wider international investment audience. It also shows the stable support of NYSE to Greece, the Greek companies, the Greek shipping industry and the Greek American Diaspora. The US Capital Markets are a major source of capital for a growing number of companies of Greek interest and the New York Stock Exchange is playing a leading role in this.

Ms. Tara Dziedzic, Head of US Listings at NYSE, welcomed the Greek Delegation and the NYSE listed companies. She highlighted the long-standing relationship between the New York Stock Exchange and the Greek and Greek American business communities, and also pointed out that NYSE’s commitment to the Greek American diaspora, the Greek shipping and business community and the listed companies, remains strong.

Following Ms. Dziedzic’s remarks, Dr. Nikolas P. Tsakos, Founder, President & CEO, TEN Ltd. (NYSE: TEN), and H.E. Christos Staikouras, Greek Minister of Infrastructure and Transport, each delivered brief remarks in honor of the day. They referred to the increasing attractiveness of Greece as a business and investment destination, the internationalization of Greek businesses, the close relations between the United States and Greece across the board and also thanked the New York Stock Exchange for the long-standing cooperation and support and for hosting today’s event.

Minister Staikouras reminded that when he first participated in this event in 2019 ringing the Closing Bell, he had mentioned : “Greece is Coming Back”. Today, he can say “Greece is Back” and he reiterated the Greek Prime Minister’s message delivered at the Capital Link Forum the day before that “the Best is Still to Come”.

Dr. Tsakos highlighted the 22+-year journey of TEN as a NYSE listed company and emphasized the critical role of Greek shipping in global commerce and trade and the global supply chain.

Prior to the closing bell ceremony, an exchange of commemorative gifts took place between Ms. Tara Dziedzic, Head of US Listings - NYSE, Dr. Nikolas P. Tsakos, Founder, President & CEO, TEN Ltd. (NYSE: TEN) and H.E. Christos Staikouras, Greek Minister of Infrastructure and Transport, former Minister of Finance.

H.E. Christos Staikouras, Greek Minister of Infrastructure and Transport, having very recently officially inaugurated with Prime Minister Kyriakos Mitsotakis the underground metro system in the Greek city of Thessaloniki, the “Thessaloniki Metro”, presented to Ms. Tata Dziedzic a commemorative plaque with the Thessaloniki Metro logo (limited edition).
