Propelling the 21st Century Maritime Silk Route Global Finance and Capital Markets

推进“二十一世纪海上丝绸之路” 共建全球金融和资本市场繁荣

As China embarks on fulfilling President Xi Jinping vision of reviving the Maritime Silk Route, the local maritime and shipbuilding industry can benefit from enhanced access to the global markets to strengthen China's role as an important maritime hub and grow their business. Similarly, global financiers and value investors are looking to participate in this exciting development through linking with suitable Chinese business partners in China and take advantage of the opportunities created by the current market volatility.
